Philad[a] July 28[th] 1839

To the President and Members of the Union Library Company

Gentlemen

Please accept this as my Resignation from your Company for I am in Eternity.

Your old friend S. L. Fowler

This Resignation I wrote in Philad[a] previous to my leaveing it, I was injoying good health, and in fine spirits with a bright prospects before me, with a cheering hope, that I should have the opportunity, to aid in bearing upward, and onward, the Standard of liberty, with a sweet anticipation, that I should be able, to aid rearing up a sister Republic, where the rights of me men, should be secure, against the abominable corrupted Priestes, the demagogyes, and fiends of darkness, it has Pleased God, to call me to Eternity, I am no more, my Spirit is now, viewing the boundless beauties of the Wisdom of God, and Eternity, you must fellow your Members all pass the dark shadows of death, oh be prepared for the worst, May heaven bless you all and keep you from all harm

Your lost friend Samuel L. Fowler
